Editorial

Last year we were the very grateful recipients of some money from the Open Gardens and Scarecrow Day. This enabled us to invest in a new computer programme as well as other items to help in the production of the magazine. As a Production Team we felt that it would be lovely to experiment and have a colour front cover so here it is! Obviously this costs more but if we have some favourable comments then we may be able to do another edition in the future. Please let us know what you think. I certainly am very excited about this edition. Our Social Evening for the Village Voice distributors was held in the Church Hall and was a really lovely relaxed evening with us enjoying convivial company, good food and a quiz. There are lots of things going on in the village so enjoy reading your Village Voice.

Want to Join Us?

If you're aged between 6 and 18 and think you might like to join us, please contact us (details below) or pop into the Church or Village Hall on a Monday evening to find out more details. Also, if you are over 18 and can spare a few hours now and then, there is always a job that wants doing, give us a ring, or pop in one Monday, we're nice people really.

Clothing Collection – Still Collecting!

We continue to collect clothing to raise funds to update and replace our Group's equipment. As ever we would like your help collecting textiles. This includes; clothes, bags, shoes etc. Either; give it to a Beaver, Cub, Scout or Explorer, alternatively bring it to the Village Hall on a Monday evening (during term time) or give one of the leaders a ring and we'll happily collect it. This helps raise nearly £1000 per year for the Group, which makes a huge difference to the activities we can run.

If you have any queries about anything to do with Beavers, Cubs, Scouts or Explorers, then please contact Alan Smith (Group Scout Leader) on 01652 654457.

Brownies are for girls aged between about 7 and 10 years old. Brownies are part of the Guide movement, which is the biggest youth organisation in the country. At Brownies we use games, crafts and other activities to create a fun packed programme that aims to help the development of our young girls. We try to supplement our weekly meetings with days out and trips away. Hibaldstow Brownies has been operating for many years. We meet on Monday evenings from 6:00pm – 7:30pm in Hibaldstow School. If you think you might know someone who may be interested in joining then either give me a ring or come along one Monday night.

Dr. Annabel Yule Smith

On Saturday April 16th we said 'Goodbye' to our G.P. Annabel. It was a very emotional and sad day for us all.

Annabel came to Hibaldstow 25 years ago as our Doctor.

Her speech, I am sure, was very hard for her and I think all present were saddened and moved by her farewell speech.

She was very caring and did her utmost to help and assist all of her patients, in sickness and in health. She will be greatly missed.

We all wish her every happiness in the future and we all say a big 'Thank You' for Her years of devotion looking after us all.

Thank you Annabel.

What a long time to wait for your Gap Year!! Enjoy it.

The Tea Planter's Wife by Dinah Jefferies

Nineteen-year-old Gwendolyn Hooper steps off a steamer in Ceylon full of optimism, eager to join her new husband. But the man who greets her at the tea plantation is not the same one she fell in love with in London. Distant and brooding, Laurence spends long days wrapped up in his work, leaving his young bride to explore the plantation alone. It's a place filled with clues to the past, locked doors, a yellowed wedding dress in a dusty trunk, an overgrown grave hidden in the grounds, far too small for an adult...

One person who did complete the book thought it tedious whilst another thought it lightweight and a fairly formulaic example of a typical girlish romance which unfortunately was also repetitive. The rest of the group, including the reviews which had been sent in, were really complementary about the book and felt that the book took us on a cultural and atmospheric journey through Ceylon in the 1920's. We also felt that the book gave us food for thought and at times was very sad.

We felt that the author's knowledge and research shone through in this book from the vibrant and alluring descriptions of the landscape and the house which made them easy to picture, to the method of tea production and also the cultural side of things back in Ceylon in the 1920's. We were impressed with her knowledge of the political angst surrounding the Tea Farmers, their Workers, and others in 1920's Ceylon. Racism was at an all-time high at this time in Ceylon, and we felt that this book demonstrated that.

It was fascinating to hear that one of our member's mother had been brought up on a tea plantation and she felt that this book was really realistic. She said that her grandfather had looked after a tea factory and basically that is how it was. We discussed at length how each life should have the same value placed on it but that is not always the case as colour, race, religion etc come into play thus making it seem that some lives are more valuable than others and that should not be the case. Some people had been to Sri Lanka, had fallen in love with it and could empathise with the setting of the book.

There was certainly an element of secrecy running through the book and although the storyline flowed at a very slow pace at times we thought that it worked well for this detailed and evocative book which had so much pain and loss...betrayal, jealousy and guilt woven amongst all of the characters. One person really captured the mood we felt when she said that she thought that the book was "very sedate, even though the subject matter was tricky in places and that the author was almost whispering through it."

Again the scoring covered a wide range from 5/10 to 9/10 and one person said it was a definite 10/10 for her!!

The next meeting will be Thursday 2nd June at 7.30pm

The books for discussion are: I let You Go by Claire Mackintosh and The Year of The Runaways by Sunjeev Sahota

The following meeting will be Thursday 4th August. The books for discussion are The Shepherd's Life by James Rebanks;

In Her Wake by Amanda Jennings; Perfect Daughter by Amanda Prowse

HIBALDSTOW BOOK CLUB

A very select group met for the April meeting but we had received comments about the books via email from members unable to attend so we had a lot to discuss and as always, a lively evening ensued.

Books Discussed

Memory Man by David Baldacci

When Amos Decker returned home eighteen months ago to find the bodies of his wife and only daughter, he didn't think he could carry on living. Overwhelmed with grief, he saw his life spiral out of control, losing his job as a detective, his house and his self-respect. But when his former partner in the police, Mary Lancaster, visits to tell him that someone has confessed to the murder of his family, he knows he owes it to his wife and child to seek justice for them.

Of the people at the meeting two had really struggled with this book, one gave up halfway through feeling that it was more like a script for a very cheap American drama. The other person, although attempting to read it a few times, had failed to connect with it or the writing style. They both felt that it was laboured and repetitive. A couple of reviews which were sent in found it lightweight, fairly formulaic, repetitive and a bit drawn out.

However, the rest of the people at the meeting, and the other reviews sent in, absolutely loved the book, to the extent that one person has read three more by the same author. One of the reviews we received said

"I would never have picked this book off the shelf. I looked at the cover and thought 'OMG' – not my sort of book..... and then I say down to a fantastic rip-roaring / couldn't put it down / don't interrupt me / page turner of a read and I loved it! I am hooked!"

Those who had read it really thought it an excellent read, maybe not great literature but great entertainment. Words such as intriguing, interesting, jolly good read with good descriptive parts (possibly gory!) and basically was good value. They also felt that the author managed to hook them straight in, twist them around some then spit them out the other side feeling like they had been on a reading rollercoaster. They also felt that there were great characters in the book and basically David Baldacci was a really terrific storyteller.

It was certainly a very different book with an unusual and flawed hero, with a mental capability that was both blessing and curse, and the fact that someone was out to destroy him. Hence people feeling that it was a really interesting read. One person said that it reminded her of 19 Minutes by Jodi Picoult.

(The Last Mile, the sequel to Memory Man is out on April 19th)

As always scoring covered a wide range, from 4/10 to 9/10 and of course the two people who did not complete it gave it a zero!

Lions Clubs International

Lions Clubs International was founded in 1917 and has been operating in the British Isle and Ireland since the 1950's.

Today the organisation has over 1.4 million members worldwide with over 16,000 members, belonging to over 800 clubs, across Great Britain and Ireland.

Over the past decade Lions Clubs International Foundation has awarded over £500 million to support humanitarian community projects around the world. An example of which is where the British Isle and Ireland Lions have contributed over £150,000 in water purification units following natural disasters.

Lions Clubs undertake hundreds of fund-raising activities in cities, towns and villages around the world with 100% of the funds raised going direct to good causes. Not one penny is spent on administration costs, which is funded by dues paid by the Lions members.

You may not be familiar with the full scope of activities or our insight into key issues where global membership of volunteers are making a real difference in local, national, and international communities. From helping young people to be responsible citizens, to championing projects that address issues such as blindness, diabetes, and measles, as well as supporting disaster relief programmes. Lions are making a valuable contribution in the modern world. Wherever there's been a major event, members of Lions Clubs have been on hand.

The Lions logo and brand can be seen at community events every day of the year. Lions members can be found having fun raising money for charity with a host of creative ideas. Many events have been run for decades making them the centre of community activities, for young, old and everyone in-between.

We greatly appreciate and value the support given to the Lions Association and hope that we can continue to provide the service we are renowned for as being the No1 Non-Governmental Service Organisation, we are proud of our motto of 'We Serve'.

June 2016 - July 2016 Article
by Rev. David Eames

On Thursday 23rd June, voters will be able to have their say over the future of the UK's relationship with the EU. This will be, and indeed is already being, preceded by lots of comments from religious leaders about the issues, followed by lots of criticisms of religion 'meddling' in politics.

Those who don't approve of religious leaders speaking out on political issues (although they tend only to disapprove if the religious leader holds an opposite opinion!) often make two mistakes. Firstly they assume that faith and politics are separate; that one's faith is a private matter whereas politics is about public issues and never the twain should meet. This is a false division as any faith worth its salt has an outward dimension and has a view about how humans should interact. Indeed, Jesus taught us to ask our heavenly Father "thy kingdom come" and Jesus himself was executed because he represented a threat to the political and religious authorities of his day. The second mistake that is made is to think that a discussion about politics can be held in a neutral, value-free, completely 'rational' environment. We all have a world-view that shapes our thinking about society: for a lot of people that world-view is influenced by their religious beliefs for others it is influenced by their secular beliefs.

So I offer my ha'p'orth on the referendum, two reflections both based on the experience of the Church of England, but on different sides of the argument. Firstly, one of the founding principles of the Church of England was that it was not subject to Rome. Henry VIII reasoned that as he was appointed by God, he was answerable only to God, and therefore that he, not the Pope, was the head of the English church. As the Church of England spread around the world, this principle went with it, so that each national church had the authority to decide matters for themselves without looking to England. Therefore, all the churches of what is now the Anglican Communion have different liturgies and different views on certain issues. Thus the principle of each nation being in supreme control of its own area is central to the history of the Church of England.

On the other hand, the Church of England makes no grand claims for itself, it simply states that it is "part of the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church." It doesn't claim to be the true Church, or the Church in its entirety but just a part of the Church. There's a recognition that it is part of a larger whole and so that it is dependant on, and in partnership with, the rest of the Church

These two reflections show that it is possible for a Christian to be on either side of the debate, and indeed www.reimaginingeurope.co.uk is "a space for Christian reflection and debate on Britain's future relationship with Europe" with views on both sides. However you decide to vote, and whatever the result, the Christian prayer to God remains the same "thy kingdom come on earth, as it is in heaven."

HIBALDSTOW W.I.

Our April meeting was a talk about Trading Standards. It was both informative and fascinating as well as being a little bit alarming. Alarming in as much as we were told stories about scams which all sounded so plausible. It was sad to hear tales of how people had suffered due to rogue traders, traders giving false non existent addresses distraction burglars and cold callers. Trading Standards is now far more intelligence led rather than paying routine visits and they do need people to give them information. It was interesting to hear that often people do not report incidents because of fear.

Our May meeting was about discussing the resolutions that could form the basis for NFWI campaigns and activity. We also had an interesting feed back report from a member who had been to the Federation Day in Grimsby. Rachel West who is a Health Professional specialising in ageing, alzhiemers and dementia had given an excellent speech and it was obvious from what we were told that she had been a speaker who had made a real impact.

Nancy Birtwhistle from "The Great British Bake Off 2014 had been there as well and she spoke about her experiences on Bake Off saying that Mary Berry was quite stern whilst Paul Hollywood was very funny.

Our June meeting will be a talk about Indeed Law and in July there will be a talk about Glass Fusion by Irene McGrath which will be illustrated with examples of her work.

Greetings and good wishes from all of us in Hibaldstow Methodist Church as the latest edition of Village Voice is published.

I am writing this at Rogationtide and as I prepare to go off on holiday for a week, hopefully to do some photography so inevitably this month I am focusing on Creation.

A few weeks back a friend took me to Blacktoft Sands. He was visiting the area and is a keen birdwatcher. Well I hadn't been there very long before I was well and truly hooked. We saw Marsh Harriers in flight and they even did a food swap in mid air. I was fascinated by the Avocets and could have watched them being busy doing nothing all day. I'm joining RSPB and look forward to days out in the summer. Two things stuck in my mind. One was the variety of plumage some quite colourful and spectacular. The other was the variety of birdsong. My guide for the day seemed to recognise them all and was even able to pick up any bird song complete with a photo on his tablet. The rich variety was both awesome and breath-taking. I found myself putting the experience alongside my love of classical music and art and thinking about creation I found myself saying 'How can it all be an accident? By no means'. Perhaps that means we have to treat creation and one another with greater reverence and respect.

Which brings me to another aspect of creation and that is the Garden, appropriate for the month when we celebrate our Open Gardens in Hibaldstow. Over 40 years ago I remember hearing a fellow student preaching in college on the gardens in scripture. He began with the Garden of Eden where in the story humans put themselves in the centre of their own worlds and above God and so sin and selfishness entered the world. We moved on to the Garden of Gethsemane where Jesus who came into the world to restore humanity and all creation in a right relationship with God on the night before he was taken out to be crucified prayed in agony that he might do God's will and so fulfil his mission. And finally to the Garden of Resurrection as Jesus risen from the dead met Mary at the tomb. The possibility of our living in a right relationship and daily walk with him was opened and we could live in the hope of creation still marred by human selfishness and greed one day being restored to God's original purpose.

So can I invite you this month to view creation with awe and wonder. Learn to treat it with reverence and respect, to cherish it as a gift from God. As you walk around the 'Open Gardens' think about the Garden of Resurrection where first someone met Jesus Christ risen from the dead.

Don't forget our Songs of Praise at the Methodist Chapel on 26th June at 6pm.

If you are going away on holiday, have a great time and don't forget to come home refreshed and renewed.

With love and all blessings, Your Methodist Minister and Friend, Ian Wales

Hibaldstow Art Group

We are a small group of people who get together on Monday afternoons in the Church Hall to paint and draw.

They are untutored sessions but everyone supports each other, giving ideas and constructive criticism. It is also a social occasion that provides much discussion, humour and support for members. We also try to arrange the occasional trips out which usually involves eating!!

At present there are seven in the group ranging from complete novices to very experienced individuals but there is room for a limited number of new members. If you would be interested in having a look to see if the group is what you want then why not pop into the Church Hall between 1pm and 3pm for a chat. You would be made most welcome.

HIBALDSTOW HISTORY GROUP

Our meeting in March was well attended with 22 members and 1 guest present. Our speaker was Horace Liberty who gave a presentation entitled 'Lincoln Then and Now'. This gave a real insight into how the city and its people lived in the Edwardian period and how it has developed over the last century. Several members were able to recall some of the landmarks shown which no longer remain. This was an excellent presentation and was enjoyed by all.

Our April meeting was our AGM and was attended by 15 members. It was agreed that the annual subscription would remain at £5 with a monthly admission charge of £1 for members and £2 for guests. As the village has grown considerably in size it was suggested that we submit small articles of information for inclusion in future editions of Village Voice about the history of Hibaldstow. We hope this will give residents an insight into the origins of some of the buildings and inhabitants of the village in times gone by

At our next meeting on the 19th May we shall welcome Rod Fanthorpe who will be telling us about 'Lincolnshire's Colonies Overseas.' The planned talk by Josie Webb will now take place later in the year.

In June members will have a choice of venues. On the 16th June those members who wish to do so are able to visit Brigg Heritage Centre to hear a talk being given by Margaret Dickinson, well known Lincolnshire author. This is an afternoon visit and tickets must be obtained in advance.

Please contact Pat Horton on 01652 653916 if you would like to attend.

Alternatively our normal monthly meeting will take place in the Church Hall in the evening of the 16th June and this will take the form of an historical quiz.

If you are interested in joining us please contact:-

Stan Smith on 654229, Pat Horton on 653916 or Pat Ackland on 659839 or just come along for 7.30pm to the Church Hall. We would love to see you and you can be assured of a warm welcome and an interesting evening. Go on, give us a try. Submitted by Christine Ellwood

Glanford and Lindsey Lions Club

GLANFORD & LINDSEY LIONS CLUB CELEBRATE 25 YEARS OF SERVICE

On the 12th April Glanford and Lindsey Lions Club celebrated 25 years of service. Over that period we have raised more than £370,000 for worthy causes. Many people have been affected by donations which have been made to Local, National and International causes ranging from individual assistance, nationally recognised groups and international disasters. We are extremely proud to be able to say that every penny we raise goes towards a worthy cause. We hope we can continue as a Club for another 25 years and continue to help those less fortunate than ourselves, but we keep reminding ourselves that we would not have been able to celebrate our achievements without the generous support from the public. So it is those that support us that we would like to thank. We will keep helping where we can and follow one of our mottos 'We Serve'. Without YOUR help we would not be able to assist the worthy causes we do; so a huge THANK YOU for the support you give us.

THE FORGE

We continue to donate food to the Forge in Scunthorpe on a weekly basis.

CHARITY GOLF DAY

This year our Charity Golf Day has again been organised to take place in May 2016, at the usual venue, Holme Hall Golf Club. Hopefully we will have some good weather and an enjoyable completion, whilst raising funds for those less fortunate.

MESSINGHAM SHOW

We are again planning to have a pitch at the show, to provide awareness for what we do and to have some fun. So if you are going to Messingham Show please come along, we will be pleased to see you.

LINCOLNSHIRE SHOW

A cluster of Clubs within our District are again this year planning to have a pitch at the Lincolnshire Show, so if you are attending the Show please come along and say hello and find out a little more what Lions do in the Community.

CARING FOR YOUR COMMUNITY

Raising funds enables us to continue our commitment in serving the communities in which we live. Caring for Your Community is our key objective. Glanford and Lindsey Lions Club provide, through our various activities, support where it is needed and we will continue to support groups and individuals who deserve and require help.

Hibaldstow History Note

On the 9th October 1874 it was reported in the Lincolnshire Chronicle that Hibaldstow Church was in such a deplorable condition that it was likely that it would be not fit to be used during the coming winter. £1300 was needed for its restoration.

North Lincolnshire Council Trading Standards

Safeguarding the interests of consumers and the business community within North Lincolnshire.

Looking for a local trader to do work for you?

Don't just presume that if the area code on an advertisement is local e.g. 01724, 01652 or 01427 that the trader is based locally. Many traders are now buying telephone numbers to give the appearance of them being local.

If you want to check try ringing the number from a landline without the area code. You will often find that it will not ring out.

Always ask for a trader's address and if possible visit their address to check them out before agreeing to work being done.

If you want more advice contact the Citizen Advice Consumer Helpline on 03454 04 05 06 or visit www.adviceguide.org.uk.

Say NO To Scammers!

No-one wants to be caught out by a crafty scammer. Follow our tips and avoid becoming a victim.

Top 10 tips to avoid scams:

- Say NO. To unwanted, uninvited callers
- Be wise to rogue traders. Too good to be true offers probably are.
- Don't feel pressured to make a decision. Say "No", or say you need advice first.
- Be wise to postal scams. No legal company will ask for money to claim a prize.
- Keep personal details safe. They could be used fraudulently in the wrong hands.
- Research the credentials of the company. Be certain they're not bogus.
- Be online savvy. Check who you're communicating with online.
- Talk to someone you trust if you're suspicious.
- Report a scam. Help expose the criminals
- Know you are not alone. Anyone can be a victim, report it and get the right support

A special hotline has been set up for people to report suspected fraud. Trained staff will answer your calls during office hours. Outside these hours you can leave a recorded message. You do not have to give your name.

Things are really hotting up for summer at Skydive Hibaldstow with our busiest start to the season ever with over 3300 skydives taking place in April alone. Every year we host a number of instructor training courses for the British Parachute Association (BPA), who are our regulatory body. On these courses instructors travel from all areas of the UK and are assessed by examiners in a bid to attain their skydiving instructor ratings, this then sees them go off back to their home drop zones and continue to teach people to skydive and give them the thrill of a lifetime.

As the largest & busiest skydiving centre in the UK we pride ourselves on being one of the most efficient drop zones in the UK with a huge team who support this in many ways. We are also one of the most progressive centres, training instructors in-house and building peoples experience up from the ground. Recently one of our instructors (Andy) was awarded by the BPA the Instructor of the Year Award. Following 3 years of hard work he was chosen from instructors throughout the UK and given this highly commended award, Andy can be found most days taking our customers for their AFF and tandem skydive experiences.

Skydive Hibaldstow is regularly chosen by TV companies to help with filming, Emmerdale has featured skydiving twice, both times filmed at Hibaldstow, one of the Bridget Jones' films skydiving scene was also filmed with us a few years ago and most recently a Bollywood film was not only filmed at Hibaldstow but also had members of staff performing skydiving stunts. Just over 3 years ago now Chris Kamara brought his family over for their tandem skydives, we have also had singers from the X factor and just a couple of weeks ago we had a visit from Guy Martin. So whilst being located in the midst of Lincolnshire you never know who may be calling to see us or who you may bump into.

Added to all of this, we also operate drop zones in Spain and Portugal as well as regularly providing aircraft to other skydiving centres around the UK from our large fleet, which are all maintained on site by our own local engineers. Recently one of our aircraft was involved with Glasgow airports 50th year celebrations as it was the first aircraft to land on their new runway following the relocation of the airport. This aircraft is one of the original workhorses which started the company all those years ago and is still flying with us, although not for skydiving purposes.

For readers of the Village Voice we would like to offer a discount on food and drinks in our clubhouse cafe and diner, which from 6th June will be open 7 days a week until the end of August, simply mention this advert at the time of ordering in our cafe. We have a wide range of hot and cold snacks available each day, as well as our bar which opens daily, not forgetting ice creams are also available all summer. So if you're sat at home wondering what to do, feel free to come up and sit watching the action, or even take part yourself by calling our reservations and booking office, mentioning the Village Voice to receive a discounted skydive.
