Editorial

As I finish putting this edition together it feels like a very hot summer's day and yet there are Autumn colours to be seen and certainly the nights are drawing in making me realise that we are entering the latter part of the year. Our next Village Voice will have all the Christmas activities taking place in it so if you have something to send then please note the deadline date below. We are very grateful to the couple of people who got in touch about helping to deliver the magazine BUT we could do with some more people so please, if you can spare about an hour every couple of months then do contact Valerie and Peter who will be delighted to hear from you. We are sometimes asked why something is not in Village Voice. The answer is simple, if we are not told about it then we cannot include it so do not hesitate to get in touch.

Trustees of Hibaldstow War Memorial Club

It is with great sadness that we report the passing of Ronald Coates aged 91. Ron has been a Trustee since the 1950's. During that time he has worked tirelessly to ensure that the War Memorial Hall be maintained for present and future generations. Ron and others addressed in 1956 the issue of a building having outlived its original function becoming neglected. Despite opposition, from some village residents, licensed status was granted for the building, allowing formation in 1956, of the War Memorial Club to occupy the Hall. In July 1974, following total loss in a fire, Ron and colleagues worked to address insurance and financial issues to rebuild the Hall. In more recent times he has overseen Charity Commission Registration. Until his passing, Ron acted as Correspondent and Treasurer of Trustees. In recent years he ensured that the Trustees remained up to strength and quorate. Accordingly, Trustees will continue to carry out their responsibilities of maintaining The War Memorial Hall.

World War One Memorial Tablet

As a result of research by several residents, it has become apparent that five names are worthy of addition. Accordingly the Trustees have approved addition of names to the tablet:

A Havercroft; J Havercroft; E Watmough; FT Watmough; FA Wright.

As the tablet cannot be removed it will have to be engraved by hand at a cost in the region of £600. It is hoped that the work will be completed before the next Armistice Day Service.

Our meeting on Thursday 4th August was really well attended and we welcomed a new member. We were delighted to have received a donation from Open Gardens so now need to see if we can find an author or publisher or illustrator to come and talk to us about what they actually do. If we can locate someone then the meeting will be opened up to the whole of the village to come along and join us.

Books Discussed

The Shepherd's Life by James Rebanks (It had been a Radio 4 Book of the week)

Some people's lives are entirely their own creations. James Rebanks' isn't. The first son of a shepherd, who was the first son of a shepherd himself, he and his family have lived and worked in and around the Lake District for generations.

Their way of life is ordered by the seasons and the work they demand, and has been for hundreds of years. A Viking would understand the work they do: sending the sheep to the fells in the summer and making the hay; the autumn fairs where the flocks are replenished; the gruelling toil of winter when the sheep must be kept alive, and the light-headedness that comes with spring, as the lambs are born and the sheep get ready to return to the fells.

As always a real diversity of opinion about this book and, as always, one member said that had it not been for Book Club she would not have read this book.

Some people felt that it was not well written, the writing style was hard to get to grips with. However, nearly all who had read it said that some of the facts were really interesting as was the lack of chapters and organising the book around the seasons. There was a real sense of history as well as a sense of place and continuity and he always knew where he belonged. One person thought that the book gave her a 'feel good' factor.

A surprising piece of information in the book was that the writer went to study at Oxford having left school at 15.

We scored this book between 5/10 and 7/10.

In Her Wake by Amanda Jennings

A tragic family event reveals devastating news that rips apart Bella's comfortable existence. Embarking on a personal journey to uncover the truth, she faces a series of traumatic discoveries that take her to the ruggedly beautiful Cornish coast, where hidden truths, past betrayals and a 25-year-old mystery threaten not just her identity, but also her life. Chilling, complex and profoundly moving, In Her Wake is a gripping psychological thriller that questions the nature of family – and reminds us that sometimes the most shocking crimes are committed closest to home.

One question that this book threw up was 'Is it right to take a child away from a family? And we spent some time discussing this issue. Whether people liked or disliked the book overall we felt that it was well written but then some felt that it was enthralling, compelling, and a real page turner whilst others loathed it. One person thought that the pacing to this story lured you in nicely to the story and then threw you off guard with another taut twist in the tale or another secret you weren't quite expecting. She also said that the book had a real WOW factor for her. Another person thought that the book was a real disappointment and she did not like the predictable, trite outcome and felt that the story was quite simply unbelievable, full of incredible coincidences and awful characterisations. Yet again such diversity of opinion! We scored the book from 3/10 to 9/10

Perfect Daughter by Amanda Prowse (This was a World Book Night Book)

Once upon a time, Jacks Morgan had dreams. She would have a career and travel the world. She would own a house on the beach, and spend long nights with her boyfriend strolling under the stars.

But life had other ideas. First Martha came along, then Jonty. then her mother moved in, and now their little terrace is bursting at the seams. Jacks gave up on her dreams to look after her family. If only, just for once, her family would look after her...

One person said that it was one of the worst books she had ever read, in fact, she thought it dire. The storyline was predictable, unbelievable, boring and very difficult to persevere with until the end. It was dull, dull, dull!!

Comments which kept being repeated were dull, boring, what a dreary life she led and did nothing about it. It showed what a humdrum mundane life she led. Many of the characters were implausible one dimensional and unconvincing. Even the main characters name irritated one member.

All in all it was not well received although a few people said that it had been an easy read and that they felt that it was quite believable.

We scored the book from 2/10 to 6/10 (The 'dire' member gave it a 0/10)

I'm a little pumpkin orange and round.
Once upon a time I grew on the ground.
But now I have mouth, two eyes and a nose.
Put a candle in me and my face glows.

Hibaldstow - Individual Category Entries

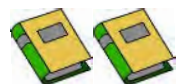

This village has also entered the individual category/ies ticked below. Mark in addition to the general marking. If there is no tick, then no separate marking is Required.

✓	Category	Max	Mark	Comments
✓	Playground Station Road	50	44	The playground is set in a large playing field. There is an adjacent skate park and a tennis court. Some of the play equipment is ageing and could do with some updating but the skateboard facility is attractive and well-maintained. There was some litter on the grass around the playground and on the tennis court which has a poor surface. There was limited seating and a rusted litter bin.
✓	Churchyard Church Street	50	45	The church occupies a pleasant site, framed by mature trees. The churchyard was tidy with well-tended grass and well-maintained hedges and bushes, although the area at the east end of the churchyard is a little overgrown. There were a number of graves with weeds and a small amount of litter.
✓	Community planting Scheme	50	46	There were some good examples of community planting throughout the village including colourful displays under the village signs on entry. Good planting is in evidence on Redbourne Road, Brigg Road, Hopfield, St Albans Close and the corner of Church Street and Station Road.
✓	War Memorial West Street	50	47	This simple but effective memorial is well maintained and tidy. The planting is colourful and thoughtful with 6 neatly placed wreaths on the wall. There were a few weeds on the path and the verge to one side could do with some attention.

Although the Parish Council was not placed this year in the competition they are reasonable happy with the results although there is some room for improvement. As previously reported the Parish Council along with the Village Hall Committee are actively seeking grant funding to upgrade the play area located at the village hall.

The person who does not read books has no advantage over one who cannot read them.

Best Kept Village Results 2016

		Max	Mark	Judges's Comments
1	General Tidiness and Appearance Litter, fly tipping, graffiti, including at bus stops and telephone boxes. General maintenance of hedges, trees, verges, fences, walls, paths and seats	40	36	Although there was a little litter in some parts of the village, including on Ings Lane, this a generally tidy village. There was no evidence of graffiti and the footpaths were generally well-maintained although a number had weeds growing through them. Verges and hedges were reasonably tidy. The bus shelter on Redbourne Road was overgrown with ivy.
2	Community Facilities Community centres, village halls, schools, parks, playing fields, churchyards/cemeteries, chapel surrounds, war memorials and public noticeboards.	40	36	The large playing field includes an excellent Village Hall and a play ground area and skateboard park. The area is generally well maintained but some of the play equipment would benefit from updating. The churchyard is an attractive area although there was some litter. The Methodist Church had a pot of flowers outside and the war memorial on West Street was tidy and attractive.
3	Gardens & Community Areas Gardens, window boxes, hanging baskets, tubs and planters, community planting, public areas, and Allotments	50	45	The community planting is very effective in various locations around the village, notably at the entrances to the village, on Hopfield and St Alban's Close. There were a number of very attractive gardens with delightful planting e.g. on Stow Walk, Hopfield and Old School Drive.
4	Other community features Shops, inns, farmsteads, workshops, business premises, advertisements and signposts	20	18	The signs are generally well maintained. The Wheatsheaf Pub had good hanging baskets and floral displays. The noticeboards outside the church hall are very neat and well-maintained.

I was in Lincoln on Saturday and leaving the Cathedral by the refectory door to cross Eastgate. The Cathedral grounds were becoming thick with leaves. There was the feeling that autumn has come, seasons of mist and mellow fruitfulness. Golden fields have been harvested and soon some of us will be singing 'All is safely gathered in'. It's a time for being thankful for all our blessings, for asking questions about sharing but also for asking ourselves what are the things that matter most.

Some of us when we lead worship follow a lectionary, a calendar of suggested readings for each Sunday of the year. On the Sunday following the day when I have prepared this article one of the readings is a story which Jesus told of an unjust steward which makes us ask questions about justness and fairness (Gospel of Luke Chapter 16 verses 1-13). But reading the story over and over has been making me ask questions about how we ask put a value on things. This is not a tirade against wealth or riches. Perhaps it is asking what are the things that really count and do we value those things on which you just can't put a value.

When I am in London I love going to the National Gallery and looking around centuries of artwork on which a value cannot be placed. I am fascinated by the history of art and the stories behind some of the artists. Some of those pictures will be worth hundreds of thousands or even perhaps millions of pounds. But then I reflect and wonder whether we are in possession of things so much more valuable. I was once asked if I had to save valuable possessions in my house what would they be. I had to think. My ordination Bible? The visitors book in the manse which contains many of the signatures of people I have entertained over nearly forty years of ministry? A photo of my wonderful parents? There are things that are ours upon which you cannot put a price and these days of getting and spending I wonder what those things might be for you. What are the things that really matter?

And then I reflect that perhaps the most valuable thing of all is the human life. We have been reminded of the old images that haunted us so many years ago of a naked girl, her flesh burning fleeing for her life in Vietnam. That image stayed with many people for many years. Every human life is precious to God even the lives of those we find it hard to like or love. We need to learn to see the image of God in each other and to see each other as being precious to him. Others are worth our love and care. It might just change them. The most precious things of all is the human soul and you can't put a price on that. Just thinking ☺

Love and prayers, your minister and friend, Ian

October 2016 - November 2016 Article

by Rev. David Eames

There's a fine line between vigilance and paranoia and between caution and hysteria and it's a line that I'm going to attempt to tread in this article.

This summer's gaming sensation has been Pokemon Go – a smartphone game where imaginary creatures and accessories are looked for and captured in real life locations. Some have praised it for getting couch-potato gamers out of their houses and walking around, whilst others have pointed out the dangers of people walking onto roads or into streams; causing accidents or making themselves vulnerable to crime by playing the game. A few people are warning of the spiritual damage that Pokemon can do.

This latter group look at the 'worldview' of the game. Pokemon is short for 'pocket monsters' and the Pokemon have different abilities, for example reading of minds, use of poison, mimicry, taunting, teleportation and hypnosis. The concept of the original game of Pokemon is that you capture these Pokemon, 'train' them and then 'summon' them to fight against other people's Pokemon. This, they say, is very similar to the practices of summoning and trying to control spiritual beings and forces that are found in witchcraft, Wicca, shamanism and spiritism, all of which the Bible warns against. They also point to the testimony of former witchdoctors such as Bautista who, with no prior knowledge of the game, identified some Pokemon with demons they had encountered.

However, whilst some of the underlying themes and concepts of Pokemon are based on unChristian and potentially dangerous worldviews, it is after all just a game. The same can't be said, on the other hand for those who 'dabble' in witchcraft, Wicca, mediums, psychics, spiritism etc. These are very real attempts to summon and control very real spiritual beings and forces. The problem with these practices, apart from the dubious techniques used by some of the practitioners, is that although the spiritual forces are real, only demonic forces would use these means. This is because God has forbidden these practices so no force for good would use them, despite them seeming to be harmless or even caring. St Paul warns us the "Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. It is not surprising, then, if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness." (2 Corinthians 11:14-15).

There is no such thing as good magic, the dead cannot be communicated with and spiritual forces are beyond the command of humans. What will respond if you call on these things are evil spirits that we are unable to control. However, the Bible records loads of occasions where Jesus demonstrated his power over evil forces, and ultimately "God defeated the spiritual rulers and powers. With the cross God won the victory and defeated them. He showed the world that they were powerless" (Colossians 2:15). If you have opened the door of your life to evil influences, the good news is that through Jesus that door can be shut and you can be set free from every evil force that wants to control you.

As the darker nights begin to draw in our view of the sky changes. The planets disappear to be replaced by a wealth of Galaxies and Nebula. Some of the best are the twin Galaxies M81 and M82 in Ursa Major, the Great Andromeda Galaxy M31 and the Ring Nebula M57 in Lyra to name but a few.

On the 28th September the Society Chairman, Tony Ackland, will be giving a talk on Observing Deep Space Objects like Galaxies and Nebula. We will also be starting our observing sessions again at our Dark Sky Site where a number of telescopes will be available.

Whilst we are a Members Society, guests are always welcome to come to our meetings. Our admission charge for guests will be £3 when we have a speaker otherwise its the usual £2.

Obituary - Pete Gilbert 1931 - 2016

It is with much sadness that the family of Pete Gilbert announce his death on 7th September 2016.

In the modern world it is rare for somebody to live their entire lives in a single settlement, yet Pete did just that. Born on March 25th 1931 at 'Sunny View' on the corner of Mill Road and Redbourne Road in a house designed and built by his father, he first met his future wife Sheila (née Massey) at the age of just five, on her first day at school. He apparently stuck out his tongue and said he didn't need silly girls at his school!

As he matured, he came to realise that girls weren't so silly after all and they became inseparable. Their only time apart was when Pete did his national service in Germany. They were married soon afterwards in 1955 and settled on Church Street in a house that he designed. Their children, Katrina and David, were born in 1960 and 1967 respectively.

A devoted family man, Pete rejected good career prospects in favour of quality family time and in particular weekends away in their caravan pulled by his lovely old Ford Zephyr.

After his family his other passion was the village of Hibaldstow and in particular the church. During his life he held too many posts to list but included bell ringer, verger, PCC member and church treasurer.

His interest in photography developed during his time in the RAF (he was posted to a photographic reconnaissance squadron in Gutersloh) but in his retirement it came together with his love of the village when he began to collect old photographs of Hibaldstow. His collection is as comprehensive as it is expansive and is perhaps the activity for which he is best known in the village, following numerous exhibitions of his work.

He enjoyed a long and happy retirement- keeping himself busy with jobs too numerous to mention but in particular helping to bring up grandchildren Leigh, Paul, Katie and Joseph. He and Sheila also moved into a bungalow just around the corner on Ford Lane, again to Pete's design. They celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary just last year and received a card from the Queen.

Pete died surrounded by his loving family, having fulfilled his wish to die in the village he loved so much. His funeral is at 11am on Wednesday 28th September at Hibaldstow Parish Church, in which he was both christened and married.

HIBALDSTOW W.I.

We did not have an August meeting but our September meeting was a talk given by Lynn Tatershall called Look Good, Feel Better. It was fascinating and we learned so much. Look Good Feel Better is the only worldwide cancer support charity, providing practical support for women struggling with the side effects from cancer treatment. Look Good Feel Better is dedicated to improving the self esteem, confidence and wellbeing of people undergoing treatment for any sort of cancer. The aim is to improve their self-image and appearance through free group and self-help skincare and make-up workshops that create a sense of support, confidence, and wellbeing.

Look Good Feel Better held their first UK Workshop in 1994 and has to date provided support to more than 130,000 patients. Their services have the support of over 50 leading companies and brands from the Beauty, Cosmetic and Fragrance Industry, as well as many other organisations who recognise the benefits of the service provided.

Workshops and Masterclasses are available in venues across the UK. They are conducted by trained Look Good Feel Better beauty volunteers who share their tips and techniques for minimising side-effects such as skin changes, eyebrow and eyelash loss.

Cancer can rob a woman of her energy and strength but with the support of Look Good Feel Better it need not take away her self-confidence.

Our October meeting is a talk by David Shepperson about The Life and Loves of Coco Chanel plus a Harvest supper.

Our November meeting is to make a Christmas themed decoration using a wooden spoon!!

All the materials will be provided on the night by Christine Laking who will be showing us what to do!!

Gardening Club

HIBALDSTOW

Sunday 24th July 2016 was the day of the Annual Show. The weather was kind to us. It was good to see the names of regular entrants, but even better to see the names of new entrants on quite a few of the exhibits. It was also good to see new names on the Winners' List.

There is a lot of garden talent in Hibaldstow and going round looking at gardens prior to judging was a delight. An early reminder – if you would like your whole garden to be entered in the Overall Garden competition 2017 you will need to let Ena know. (01652 656241)

Next year the show will take place on Sunday 17th July, the weekend before the end of the school year.

Photography subjects for next year are:–

Shadow/s, Water, Stained Glass and Wild Life.

Thank you to ALL who made this year's Show a success and an enjoyable day, that is organisers and helpers, but most of all exhibitors. Without exhibitors there wouldn't be a Show!

Thank you also to Val Maycock who has kept the committee on the straight and narrow for the past many years. Enjoy your 'retirement' Val.

HIBALDSTOW HISTORY GROUP

There was no meeting in August because of holidays. On the 5th September 17 members visited St Andrew's Church at Kirton Lindsey where Mary and Martin Hollingsworth welcomed us and gave us an interesting and at times surprising insight into the history of this beautiful old Church which is well worth a visit.

At our meeting on the 20th October we look forward to welcoming our guest speaker, Jean Howard, her subject will be

'250 years of the Wool Trade in Lincolnshire'.

If you are interested in joining us please contact:-

Stan Smith on 654229, Pat Horton on 653916 or Pat Ackland on 659839 or just come along for 7.30pm to the Church Hall. We would love to see you and you can be assured of a warm welcome and an interesting evening. Go on, give us a try. Submitted by Christine Ellwood

Without YOUR help we would not be able to assist the worthy causes we do; so a huge THANK YOU for the support you give us.

FOOD DONATIONS

As usual, with the generous assistance from The White Heather, we continue to donate food to the Forge in Scunthorpe on a weekly basis.

FUN and SPORTS DAY FOR THE DISABLED

Again the Lions put on a sports and fun day for the disabled at Sandall Park, Doncaster. This was a great day where 39 Lions Clubs came together to provide activities for over 250 disabled attendees. Medal and trophies were given to all participants who had a very enjoyable and fun day.

LITTLE DRESSES FOR AFRICA

We are endeavouring to make and send as many dresses as we can to girl orphans in Africa. The dresses are made using new or recycled pillowcases, they are very easy to make and have a massive effect on girl's lives. It is reported that girls wearing a new dress are much less likely to be abducted, abused or molested because it shows that someone cares about them. This is not just about sending pillowcase dresses – it is about sending HOPE!

If you would like to know more about this worthy cause or would like to help make some of these simple dresses, please contact a member of Glanford and Lindsey Lions Club.

ITALIAN EARTHQUAKE DISASTER

As you may be aware there has been a catastrophic earthquake in the mountainous central part of Italy where the death toll stands at 241. There have been hundreds of aftershocks since the quake struck, hampering relief efforts and damaging already unstable buildings. The Lions Clubs International Foundation responded immediately with a US$100,000 grant which will help the immediate relief. As a Club Glanford and Lindsey are proud to have made a donation to this worthy cause and further funding will be made available to help with the longer term rebuilding.

WE CARE ABOUT EVERY PENNY

Lions Clubs help local communities in a number of ways with every penny collected going direct to good causes. Not a penny is spent on administration. We focus on good deeds and help those who are less fortunate. Just ask to join in the fun and friendship.

If you'd like to know more Just Ask. Just ask how we help;

Health – We believe everyone deserves a healthy life.

Sight – We want everyone to see a better tomorrow.

Youth – We empower the next generation

International – We serve local communities and protect the planet.

CARING FOR YOUR COMMUNITY

Raising funds enables us to continue our commitment in serving the communities in which we live. Caring for Your Community is our key objective. Glanford and Lindsey Lions Club provide, through their various activities, support where it is needed and we will continue to support groups and individuals who deserve and require help. Where there is a need, there is a LION.

July saw a visit from pupils at Hibaldstow Academy who came for a look around our facilities just before breaking up for the summer holidays - staff on site gave them informative chats on how the parachutes are packed and how they work, along with tours around the aircraft under the watchful eye of our experienced pilots as well as teach them the basic skydiving body position - fun was had by all. We would like to thank all the pupils for the pictures they sent in following this visit, we are currently arranging a display in our clubhouse for these.

August saw the return of our annual competition - the UK National Skydiving Championships - the biggest skydiving competition of its kind in the world which we are proud to host. We had some very challenging weather with strong winds the first weekend (20-22nd August) and at times very overcast. The second weekend (27th-29th August), however we managed to complete all the rounds in all categories by the end of the second weekend.

The first weekend begins on Friday evening where the 4 way and VFS (vertical formation skydiving) teams arrive for an opening brief & ceremony at which time the competition rounds are drawn. With three categories having 8 rounds to complete and the senior AAA category having 10 rounds to complete. In addition the VFS teams also compete this weekend and their rounds are drawn at the same time. The aim for all categories is to build as many of the formations for each round in a set time, the more formations the more points they score, the teams with the highest score in each category win that. Judges watch the video footage and score each team, where each completed formation scores a point. The more senior teams also have block moves in their rounds, blocks are where parts of the formation are turned and score more points as they are more complex and harder to build. This year again saw our sponsored team - Satori XL win the AAA category with other members from our company in team 4Mula take silver. In the Rookie category Hibaldstow trained and coached teams took all the podium positions, which we hope is the shape of things to come as they progress - watch this space!

The second weekend has 8 way teams competing, again arriving on Friday evening for the opening brief & ceremony where the rounds are drawn, this weekend also sees speed competitors take part in seeing who can give the fastest freefall as well as artistic categories which is where teams are scored on the technical and difficulty aspects of the skydive.

Many of the competitors who won at the higher levels are heading out to Chicago to take part in a world meet and represent Great Britain - we wish them every success.

September 3rd and 4th saw an attempt to set a new head down record, which saw some of the top skydivers from around the UK congregate in Hibaldstow, whilst they did beat the existing record, it was not valid as the full pre-jump formation agreed was not built so they came extremely close, maybe next time.

Our season begins to slow down now with us closing Mondays and Tuesdays from the start of October,

Our cafe is still open Wednesday through to Sunday with hot and cold drinks and food available every day including our bar which is open each day too, so if anyone is looking for something to do feel free to pop up and watch the action unfold. As ever, if readers of the Village Voice mention this, they will be entitled to a discount at the cafe as well as if they would like to do a skydive please contact our booking office on 01132 505 600 for more information and to book the experience.

On top of all this, we are currently looking forward to seeing our 25th year in business as Skydive Hibaldstow and welcome any information people from the village may be able to offer - amusing stories and interesting pictures are all welcome. As I am sure some people will already know, Hibaldstow Airfield holds some great history and with the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight having recently fully restored the Spitfire AB910, which has a unique story linking it to the airfield, there is a lot more that I am sure people will be able to tell me about the airfield and its background.
